

Bad Dream

I woke up in the night time,
I heard the clock chime;
It was 12 o'clock, midnight
There was no light.

I walked out of the creaking door,
Walked out onto the spooky moor
I heard an owl in the tree,
I heard the buzzing of a bee.

I saw a figure,
It made me shiver;
My heart was beating
The sheep were bleating.

It was morning,
The day was dawning;
The sun woke up,
And so did I.

Chasing

I feel helpless when he's got me

Chasing

Chasing

The scrawney figure is goter-me

Bony and vile

The monster's black beady eyes

It's like a demon in disguise

Chasing

Chasing

He's right behind me, on my heels

Chasing

Chasing

His figure looms over me

His blue glow is all around

Chasing

Chasing

He creeps got me, but wheres he gone

SPOOKY POEM

Chasing grabbing Screaming
helpless

He is running
He is running after me

Braced
Crouched turning turning

I'm turning
He'S turning

Getting slower getting closer monster gaining

Dear Mr. Moore Joe

I am writing to tell you about the great story and when you came to our school you were really funny and I love those big boots. Just listening to part of the story makes me want to read on. I am going to tell my brother all about it. I am going to buy your 3rd 4th and 5th and 6th books, I will get the first two books signed by you. I am writing to tell you about the great time I had when you came to my school school.

your sincerely,

Where Am I Going?

I was running through the woods with nobody there

Who was after me?

Or did I care

I screamed and I screamed

I ran and I ran

But where was I going?

Where was I going?

NOWHERE!

I screamed for mum,

I screamed for dad,

I screamed for Johnny their young lad

Who could it be?

A ten foot monster after me

What have I done to deserve this

Please, please mummy give me a kiss

I wish, I wish I was at home

God, God please don't leave me alone

Use your magic make a spell

I'm not going home

I'm not going home

I know, I know

I know!

im coming

im coming

im coming
